

2005 History-Social Science Primary Adoption CRP Applicants

Attachment 2

Page 1 of 2

Number	Title	Employer
106	Associate Professor	East Los Angeles College

Highest Degree	Expertise	Region	Gender
Ph.D. History, UCLA	Latin America, Early US, Native American, African Diaspora, Women's History, Chicano History	South	F

Summary

The candidate is an Associate Professor at East Los Angeles College. She teaches American and Latin American history, and is the Director of the Center for Learning and Achievement in the Social Studies. She is the author of several papers on indigenous peoples in Mexico, and Chicano activism in California. She has served since 2000 on the Steering Committee for a Funds for the Improvement of Postsecondary Education (FIPSE) Grant, working with UCLA and community college professors in developing curriculum and innovative teaching and learning practices. She has a Ph.D. in History from the University of California at Los Angeles.

Number	Title	Employer
107	Professor	California State University at Sacramento

Highest Degree	Expertise	Region	Gender
Ph.D. Political Science, UC Berkeley	American History, American Politics, California History	Central	M

Summary

The candidate is a Professor of Government at California State University at Sacramento. He has served as Director of the Center for California Studies at CSU Sacramento and as a visiting scholar at the Institute for the Study of Social Change at UC Berkeley. He is the author of Corporate Liberalism: The Origins of Modern American Political Theory, 1890-1920 (1982), and of numerous articles and conference papers. He has been the recipient of an Outstanding Teacher Award. He has a Ph.D. in Political Science from the University of California at Berkeley.

Number	Title	Employer
108	Archivist	California State Archives

Highest Degree	Expertise	Region	Gender
Ph.D. History, Arizona State University	California History, US History	Central	F

Summary

The candidate is an archivist at the California State Archives. His current assignment is the development of museum exhibits on the history of California. He is the author of over a dozen journal articles on the history of California and the Southwest. He has a Ph.D. in History from Arizona State University.

2005 History-Social Science Primary Adoption CRP Applicants

Attachment 2

Page 2 of 2

Number	Title	Employer
109	Professor	San Diego Mesa College

Highest Degree	Expertise	Region	Gender
Ph.D. History, UC Berkeley	US Labor, Immigration, Ethnicity, Italian-American, Social History	South	M

Summary

The candidate is Department Chair and Professor of History at San Diego Mesa College. He is the author of several articles and conference papers on labor and Italian-American history. He has been active on numerous committees of the American Historical Association, including the Task Force on History in the Community Colleges. He was also a member of the Organization of American Historians Task Force that reviewed and approved the National History Standards in 1993-94. He has a Ph.D. in History from the University of California at Berkeley.

Number	Title	Employer
111	Assistant Professor	California State University at Sacramento

Highest Degree	Expertise	Region	Gender
Ph.D. Sociology, UC Santa Cruz	African-American, California	Central	M

Summary

The candidate is an Assistant Professor of Government at California State University at Sacramento. He is the author of a number of articles and conference papers on race and politics, with a particular emphasis on the African-American experience. He is a member of the Social Sciences Advisory Committee at CSU Sacramento. He has a Ph.D. degree in Sociology from the University of California at Santa Cruz.